

James Cowie

James is a third generation professional photographer with a passion for sharing the art of capturing images through adventure travel. Exploring unique destinations around the globe, affords his guests many amazing photographic opportunities, and interesting ways to learn more about the art of photography and today's ever expanding digital workflow.

James has over thirty years experience in the photo industry, combined with his 12 plus years of travel, and knowledge of our tour destinations, each guest will enjoy an enriching experience while expanding their photographic knowledge, skills and the art of observation.

James' number one belief is to have fun with your camera. The more comfortable and relaxed you are when out on an adventure, the better your observation, resulting in more exciting images. Add in his sense of humour, and you will find yourself looking at the world in a different light, coming home with great memories, new friends and amazing images.
